MAN SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR ILLEGAL RE-ENTRY

TUCSON, Ariz.— Juan Manual Castaneda-Corona, 49, of Rancho Gualcoman, Michoacan, Mexico, was sentenced here to 120 months in prison by U.S. District Judge Frank R. Zapata. Castaneda-Corona had been found guilty by a federal jury on October 5, 2005 to Illegal Re-entry After Deportation.

Castaneda-Corona was previously deported from the United States on April 5, 1989 and November 8, 2004 in the Calexico, Calif. area. On November 14, 2004 Castaneda-Corona was found in the U.S. in the District of Arizona just six days after his last deportation.

Castaneda-Corona was sentenced on Friday, December 2, 2005 to 120 months in prison based, in part, on his prior criminal history which includes convictions for Assault with a Deadly Weapon in 1978, Accomplice to Second Degree Possession of Stolen Property in 1982, three counts of Residential Robbery with Special Allegation-Use of Firearm in 1984, Illegal Re-entry After Deportation in 1990, Robbery in 1992, Attempted Second Degree Robbery with Special Allegations in 1992 and Second Degree Robbery in 1992.

The investigation in this case was conducted by U.S. Border Patrol. The prosecution was handled by Munish Sharda, Assistant U.S. Attorney, District of Arizona, Tucson, Ariz.
